

RCIA – Symbolon Lessons 17 & 18: A Love That Lasts (Marriage)

Opening Prayer: Ephesians 5:25-33

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the bath of water with the word, that he might present to himself the church in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. So [also] husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one hates his own flesh but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the church, because we are members of his body. “For this reason a man shall leave [his] father and [his] mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.” This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church. In any case, each one of you should love his wife as himself, and the wife should respect her husband.

(1 Cor 13:1-7)

Now I will show you the way which surpasses all others. If I speak with human tongues and angelic as well, but do not have love, I am but a noisy gong, a clanging symbol. If I have the gift of prophesy and, with full knowledge, comprehend all mysteries, if I have faith great enough to move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give everything I have to feed the poor and hand over my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient; love is kind. Love is not jealous, it does not put on airs, it is not snobbish. Love is never rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not prone to anger, neither does it brood over injuries. Love does not rejoice in what is wrong but rejoices with the truth. There is no limit to love’s forbearance, to its trust, its hope, its power to endure.

- Pope Saint John Paul II:

“Man cannot live without love...His life is senseless if love is not revealed to him. If he does not encounter love, if he does not experience it and make it his own. If he does not participate intimately in it.”

- Catechism References for Further Reflection:

- God is Love: CCC 2331

“God is love and in himself he lives a mystery of personal loving communion. Creating the human race in his own image . . . God inscribed in the humanity of man and woman the vocation, and thus the capacity and responsibility, of love and communion.” (FC 11)

- Love as Vocation: CCC 2392

“Love is the fundamental and innate vocation of every human being” (FC 11).

- Chastity: CCC 2337-2339 (GS 17)

- Sexuality: CCC 2333-2335, 2360-2362 (FC22, MD 6)

- Fecundity of Marriage: CCC 2366 (HV 11,12)

- Regulation of Procreation: CCC 2368 (GS 51)

- Questions for Discussion:

- How does the “world”, and specifically our culture, portray “love”?
  - What’s the difference between “eros” and “agape” love?
  - What did they mean in the video when they referred to “loving” versus “using” others?
  - Last week we discussed that a vocation is a calling. Do you agree that “Love is the fundamental and innate vocation of every human being?”
  - The video points out that the Church does not teach that human sexuality is bad; but rather that it is a great gift God has given us that must be used properly within the context of marriage. How does that differ from how the “world” views this great gift? How has that worked out?
  - What did they mean in the video when they said premarital relations and cohabitation shouldn’t be thought of as going too far, but rather of not going far enough? What do you think of that?
  - What tools does the Church provide to help us live this teaching? What difference might it make in our lives if we strive to live this and other challenging teachings?
- Weekly Gospel Reading: 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Mk 1:21-28)

Then they came to Capernaum,
and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught.
The people were astonished at his teaching,
for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.
In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit;
he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?
Have you come to destroy us?
I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"
Jesus rebuked him and said,
"Quiet! Come out of him!"
The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him.
All were amazed and asked one another,
"What is this?
A new teaching with authority.
He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him."
His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.
