- Who is the Holy Spirit?

† Holy Spirit is the one who reveals God to us. He inspires Scripture and Sacred Tradition, guides and protects the Church, and unites the Church both in heaven and on earth, especially in the celebration of the sacraments.

- (CCC 688) The Church, a communion living in the faith of the apostles which she transmits, is the place where we know the Holy Spirit:

- † In the Scriptures He inspired
- † In the Tradition, to which the Church Fathers are always timely witnesses
- † In the Church's Magisterium, which He assists
- † In the sacramental liturgy, through its words and symbols, in which the Holy Spirit

- puts us into communion with Christ
- † In prayer, wherein He intercedes for us
- † In the charisms and ministries by which the Church is built up
- † In the signs of apostolic and missionary life
- † In the witness of saints through whom He manifests His holiness and continues the work of salvation

Gen 1:1-2. In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep; and the Spirit of God was moving over the face of the waters.

Gen 2:7. ...then the Lord God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

(CCC 727-730) Christ's whole work is in fact a joint mission of the Son and the Holy Spirit.

(CCC 728) Jesus does not reveal the Holy Spirit fully, until he himself has been glorified through his Death and Resurrection.

(CCC 731-732) On the day of Pentecost when the seven weeks of Easter had come to an end, Christ's Passover is fulfilled in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit....On that day, the Holy Trinity is fully revealed.

- ☩ Fear of the Lord – solemn respect of God that fills us with a horror and dread of offending Him, not because He is a God who will punish us with wrath, but because we would never desire to hurt the one who loves us so completely

- Weekly Gospel Reading: 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time (Lk 19: 1-10)

At that time, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner." But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone

I shall repay it four times over."
And Jesus said to him,
"Today salvation has come to this house
because this man too is a descendant of Abraham.
For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."
