- Who is the Holy Spirit?

† Holy Spirit is the one who reveals God to us. He inspires Scripture and Sacred Tradition, guides and protects the Church, and unites the Church both in heaven and on earth, especially in the celebration of the sacraments.

- (CCC 688) The Church, a communion living in the faith of the apostles which she transmits, is the place where we know the Holy Spirit:

† In the Scriptures He inspired

† In the Tradition, to which the Church Fathers are always timely witnesses

- † In the Church's Magisterium, which He assists
- † In the sacramental liturgy, through its words and symbols, in which the Holy Spirit puts us into communion with Christ
- † In prayer, wherein He intercedes for us
- † In the charisms and ministries by which the Church is built up
- † In the signs of apostolic and missionary life
- † In the witness of saints through whom He manifests His holiness and continues the work of salvation

Gen 1:1-2. In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep; and the Spirit of God was moving over the face of the waters.

Gen 2:7. ...then the Lord God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

(CCC 727-730) Christ's whole work is in fact a joint mission of the Son and the Holy Spirit.

(CCC 728) Jesus does not reveal the Holy Spirit fully, until he himself has been glorified through his Death and Resurrection.

(CCC 731-732) On the day of Pentecost when the seven weeks of Easter had come to an end, Christ's Passover is fulfilled in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit....On that day, the Holy Trinity is fully revealed.

† Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

- ☩ Knowledge – tells us the path of virtue and warns us of the dangers we face in seeking Heaven
- ☩ Piety – confidence in God that a child feels for a loving parent so we can serve God with joy
- ☩ Fear of the Lord – solemn respect of God that fills us with a horror and dread of offending Him, not because He is a God who will punish us with wrath, but because we would never desire to hurt the one who loves us so completely

- Weekly Gospel Reading: 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time (Mk 12: 38-44)

In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds,
"Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces,
seats of honor in synagogues,
and places of honor at banquets.
They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers.
They will receive a very severe condemnation."
He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury.
Many rich people put in large sums.
A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.
Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them,
"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury.
For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth,
but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had,
her whole livelihood."

- Closing Prayer:

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou amongst women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
Pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death. Amen.
